

THE ARTS SOCIETY DRIFFIELD WOLDS

The Arts Society Driffield Wolds is a member of the national Arts Society whose aim is to advance decorative and fine arts' education and appreciation, alongside promoting the preservation of artistic heritage. It is a UK-based charity supporting a network of over 360 local Societies in the UK, Europe and Australasia.

Our local society brings together groups of like-minded individuals through regular meetings, lectures by top experts (some of whom you'll recognise from TV), study days, visits, tours and a number of volunteering activities including Church Recording, Trails of Discovery, Heritage Volunteering and a Young Arts programme.

Becoming a member is a great way of expanding your knowledge of the arts as well as to have fun and make new friendships.

Our wide-ranging programme includes lectures on Chinese Porcelain; Cookbooks from Saxon times to Mary Berry; Sir William Hamilton's Vases, Volcanoes & Victory and Bach's Christmas Oratorio.

Our 9 lectures a year (none in July, August & December) are held at Driffield Rugby Club, Kelleythorpe, Driffield, YO25 9DW (ample car parking) at 7.30 pm on the third Thursday of the month.

Or just come along to an individual lecture as a visitor (suggested donation of £7).

Membership of the Driffield Wolds society includes:

- 9 lectures a year delivered by renowned experts in their field;
- Organised day visits to houses and places of interest, many not normally available to individual members of the public;
- The Arts Society magazine, delivered twice yearly to your home, together with access to the national "Connected" website with information on national exhibitions, study days and lectures plus monthly online newsletters and downloadable topics of interest;
- The opportunity to make new friends, interested in the arts, in a relaxed and friendly setting;
- From time to time, a longer tour to an area of the UK;
- The opportunity to volunteer and become involved in the running of the Driffield Wolds society.

Visit to Farnley Hall, Otley

Annual membership for 2024 is just £55 (for 9 lectures)
