

Art @ the Station

This exhibition has been conceived by The Arts Society. It has been developed to provide a rolling series of art from local schools and community projects to display in the station's public space.

The work currently displayed is a collection of work from primary school children from The EQUA Mead Learning Trust based on the theme of travel.