Day 1
We depart from our designated pick up points in our private executive coach with our tour manager who will accompany us throughout our tour. En route to our hotel we visit the National Trust's Lytes Cary Manor in Somerset, a charming manor house with a 14th century chapel rescued from dereliction in the 20th century. This intimate medieval manor house, with its beautiful Arts and Crafts inspired garden was originally the family home of the Elizabethan herbalist Henry Lyte. We then continue to The Falmouth Hotel in Falmouth for a four night stay. Dinner is included in the hotel on our first and last nights with Days 2 and 3 on a bed and breakfast basis.

Day 2
Ths morning we visit the Penlee House at Penzance, built in 1865 as a gracious Victorian home and now a first-class gallery and museum. Our guided tour on arrival introduces us to the skills and craftsmanship of painting in West Cornwall in the late 19th and early 20th century, usually including the world famous 'Newlyn School' and Lamorna Group artists. En route back to our hotel we have a guided tour of the exhibition at the Newlyn Art Gallery. The evening is free to dine out.

Day 3
We enjoy a guided tour of the award winning Lost Gardens of Heligan, comprising over two hundred acres of superb working Victorian gardens including some eighty acres of walled gardens, summerhouses, lawns, lakes and ponds, huge productive gardens and fruithouses and a twenty two acre subtropical jungle. We have the afternoon at leisure in Falmouth. Why not relax in the hotel or visit the Maritime Museum or Falmouth Art Gallery? The evening is free to dine out.

Day 4
On arrival in St Ives this morning we enjoy a guided tour at the iconic Tate St Ives. Overlooking the Atlantic Ocean, the gallery exhibits works by modern British artists with links to the St Ives area. A guided tour at the Barbara Hepworth Museum and Sculpture Garden this afternoon offers a remarkable insight into the work and outlook of one of Britain's most important 20th century artists. Sculptures in bronze, stone and wood are on display in the museum and garden, along with paintings, drawings and archive material. We enjoy a farewell dinner in our hotel this evening

Day 5
After checking out of our hotel and en route home we visit the National Trust's Kingston Lacy, home to the Bankes family for over 300 years. We have free time here to explore the house and grounds, and to have lunch on an individual basis. After the family lost their Corfe Castle stronghold to the Parliamentarians in the Civil War, they moved here and gradually created an astonishing Italian palace in the heart of rural Dorset. The property is home to an internationally acclaimed art collection, including paintings by Rubens, Velázquez and Titian, exquisite carvings and lavish interiors. Taking carefully selected comfort stops en route, we return back to our original pick up points.

NB:- Please note we reserve the right to alter the above itinerary if required for operational reasons. Given the historic nature of the places visited, a certain degree of walking will be involved, and this holiday may not be suitable for those with mobility problems.
